Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in interning with the Office of Congressman David Scott! Please read the accompanying instructions and accurately complete your application. Your packet includes:

- Information about Congressman David Scott
- An overview of the Internship Program
- Application Instructions
- Program Application

Selection Criteria

Internships in the Office of Congressman David Scott are open to high school seniors, undergraduate or graduate students in good academic standing, and recent graduates. All applicants should have a demonstrated interest in public service and excellent research and writing skills.

The Internship Program is designed especially to allow students to apply lessons learned in class to a work environment, to make professional contacts and to obtain extensive knowledge of government agencies and, more specifically, to learn how a Congressional office functions to serve constituents. In today's job market, the experience that an internship provides is vital for career development. The program is non-paid; however, students may earn academic credit.

The selection process is highly competitive. Candidates are selected based on academic achievement, demonstrated leadership, interest in public policy and community service contributions. The staff will initially review each application. Then, promising candidates will be contacted for interviews.

Application Instructions

1. Complete all sections of the application, even if a resume is also submitted.
2. Submit a letter of recommendation written by either a current or former instructor or current or former employer.
3. Submit official transcripts from all institutions attended.
4. Submit a one-page essay for two of the following questions (750 words minimum):
  - What do you hope to gain as an intern in the Office of Congressman David Scott? Describe how this position ties into your future goals.
  - What qualities distinguish you as a leader? Describe a time when you displayed excellent skills as a leader of others.
  - As the advisor to a congressional member who represents a diverse constituency, what measures would you recommend to address disparities in education?

5. Mail or fax all application materials directly to:
